USE OF COOKIES

Our Website may use cookies to distinguish you from other users of our Website. This helps us provide you with a good experience when you are browsing our Website and also allows us to improve our Website.

A cookie is a small file which is sent by our server, and which is stored on the hard disk of your computer. It is usually used to identify an individual when that individual is accessing a Website. It keeps a record of the Website visited and contains a certain amount of information regarding the visit.

We may use the following cookies.

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our Website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our Website. This category of cookies cannot be disabled, and does not require the consent of the user.
- Analytics & Performance cookies. Cookies used for analytics help collect data that allows services to understand how users interact with a particular service. These insights allow services both to improve content and to build better features that improve the user's experience.

You can set your preferences and find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below.
